The way to happiness portland

Viewed from almost any perspective, the world today suffers from a moral and ethical crisis of epidemic proportions. Beneath society's rampant crime and drug abuse, corporate greed, political misconduct and international conflict lie the root problems of dishonesty and immorality. ENTIRELY NONRELIGIOUS, THE WAY TO HAPPINESS IS BOTH UNIQUE and POWERFUL in the HANDS OF INDIVIDUALS and NATIONS. The Way to Happiness: A Common Sense Guide to Better Living by author, humanitarian and Scientology Founder L. Ron Hubbard, addresses these problems and provides a path that can be followed by any person of any background, culture or creed to attain a happier, more prosperous and more fulfilling life. Entirely nonreligious, The Way to Happiness is both unique and powerful, whether in the hands of individuals or nations. Distributed in communities afflicted by violence, gangs and racism, it has brought calm. Passed out in areas ravaged by civil strife, it has brought peace. Used in thousands of prisons, its message has restored self-respect among the most hardened criminals, guiding them onto the path to becoming useful and contributing members of society. Immensely popular since its first publication in 1981, more than 100 million copies have since been distributed in 205 countries and territories, providing a moral compass for all to live by. Given by one friend or associate to another, The Way to Happiness fills a moral void in this increasingly immoral society. The Church and its members are pleased to share the tools for happier living contained in The Way to Happiness with all who share the goal of a better world. Today we are all faced with widespread evidence of a deepening moral crisis. Intolerance—racial and ethnic hate crimes, including genocide, are rampant, with religious, ethnic or cultural differences fueling most conflicts. more The Way to Happiness Foundation International headquarters in Glendale, California was established in 2003—an acquisition made possible through the support of Scientologists. Public service announcements (PSAs) spread the message broadly, and a book-on-film is used widely by teachers, professors, business executives, law enforcement, community leaders, doctors, lawyers, correctional officers and clergy. ... more The Way to Happiness public service announcements produced by the Church of Scientology, one PSA for each of the 21 precepts of the book, reach millions on a global scale. The videos capture the essence of each precept, dramatically illustrating them so they can be understood by anyone. more Using the unbridged and complete text, exactly as written by L. Ron Hubbard, The Way to Happiness book-on-film follows the printed book chapter by chapter, precept by precept. The interweaving stories of a cast of characters illustrate each concept contained in the book. more To make The Way to Happiness universally available, the Way to Happiness Foundation presents all campaign elements online at an interactive website where visitors read the booklet and view all PSAs as well as excerpts from the book-on-film. more The international network of volunteers and supporters of The Way to Happiness now spans 186 nations. In many cities, Way to Happiness volunteers have implemented the precept "Safeguard and Improve Your Environment" by undertaking cleanup efforts to remove bottles, cans and trash from their neighborhoods. more The Church of Scientology International Dissemination and Distribution Center in Los Angeles, California, produces millions of copies of The Way to Happiness booklets, DVDs and publications that are at the heart of the Way to Happiness program. more The effectiveness of The Way to Happiness and the impact of its activities are the reasons the Way to Happiness program commands the respect and support of teachers, health instructors, school counselors, police officers, community leaders, government officials, students and parents around the world. more Wed, Nov 13, 2013 15:00 CET Members of the Church of Scientology of Port Elizabeth, South Africa, help bring police and local residents together through a unique booklet.
